Point 3 Discipline (Answers)

1. Suggested answer; Discipline is training to live within the rules determined by parents, schools, government, and churches. It is developed by constant practice in living up to the goals that have been set.
2. Suggested answer; Group activities are effective only when you have rules. This includes following the rules, establishing discipline and developing the ability to take direction from whomever is the leader.
3. Suggested answer; The basic need for law and order is to enable people to live within a group and with each other. The rights and opinions of each person must be respected at the same time that you are respecting fundamental rights of the group. Discipline is the cornerstone from which law and order develops.
